The Book of Lists, published annually by the San Diego Business Journal, provides readers with a report on top San Diego businesses in more than 80 industry categories and market segments. The Top 25 Advertising Agencies are ranked according to adjusted gross revenue, with eVisibility reporting $3.2 million in revenue. "Seeing our company on the list this year was a proud moment for me," said Danny DeMichele, CEO and founder of eVisibility. "This is a great honor, but I shouldn't take all the credit. With the help of such a bright and creative team, we all contributed to this year's success."

Among the list of clientele that helped contribute to eVisibility's success are McDonald's, Jitterbug, Pala Casino, Downey Savings, Fidelity National Title and Chicago Title.

Since being distinguished as one of the top advertising agencies in San Diego, the company is already seeing the benefits of the recognition. "Less than 24 hours after the publication came out we received several leads from local businesses as a result of being listed here," said Cary Johnson, vice president of sales.

"At this pace, we hope to see our name on more lists, specifically, Fastest Growing Companies in San Diego," said DeMichele humorously. He also added that simply making this particular list has been a big dream of his for some time, and that he'd slept with a copy of the journal on his chest last night.
